XIII. SUPREME AUTHORITY AND GENERAL MEETINGS

The supreme authority of RIMAS is vested in a General Meeting of members.

(a) Annual General Meeting

An Annual General Meeting shall be held in February each year for the following purposes:

- (i) to receive from the outgoing Council the Annual Report and Statement of Accounts for the preceding financial year;
- (ii) to elect the Governing Council every two years for the ensuing two years in accordance with the provisions of Article IX;

- (iii) to appoint two honorary auditors for the purposes of Article XIX for the ensuing year. Such appointed persons may not be re-appointed for consecutive years. Auditors so appointed shall not be members of the Council;
 - (iv) to appoint, reappoint or confirm Trustees for the purposes of Article XX;
 - (v) to transact any other business duly notified; such other business to be transacted shall be notified in writing to the Secretary, together with the names of the proposers and seconders, not less than twenty-one days before the date fixed for the meeting.
- (b) The Annual General Meeting shall be held at a place, time and date to be determined by the Governing Council, and notified by the Secretary to all voting members in writing not less than one calendar month before the date fixed for the meeting. Not less than fourteen days before this date, the Secretary shall notify such members in writing of the business to be transacted thereat. This notice shall include the Annual Report and Statement of Accounts, and any other business including those duly notified under Article XIII (a) (i-v).

XIV. EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETINGS

- (a) The Council may convene an Extraordinary General Meeting at any time to conduct any business as it may decide. The Secretary must convene an Extraordinary General Meeting within fourteen days if required to so in writing by seven Members of the Council.
- (b) An Extraordinary General Meeting shall be held at a place, time and date to be determined by the Council. Notice of such meeting, together with the business to be transacted thereat, shall be given to all voting members in writing no less than fourteen days before the date fixed for the meeting, unless the purpose is the amendment of the constitution, in which event twenty-one days' notice shall be given.
- (c) An Extraordinary General Meeting shall also be convened by the Secretary on the signed requisition of one-third of the total voting membership of RIMAS, stating the purpose of the meeting. Such meeting shall be held within fourteen days of the requisition, unless the purpose is the amendment of the Constitution, in which event it shall be held within twenty-one days.

- (d) In the event of the Council failing to direct the Secretary to call an Extraordinary General Meeting requisitioned by members under Article XIV (c) within fourteen days of such requisition, it shall be competent for voting members signing the requisition to determine a place, time and date and convene the meeting by giving fourteen days' notice of the meeting, together with the business to be transacted thereat, to all voting members of RIMAS in writing.
- (e) No business, except that which has been duly notified, may be transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting.

XV. CONDUCT OF GENERAL MEETINGS

The chair at a General Meeting shall be taken by the President of the Council, or in his absence, by the 1st Vice-President or 2nd Vice-President, or if they are also absent, by election among the remaining Council Members present. All matters relating to the conduct of the meeting not specifically provided for under this Article, Article XVI and XVII may be decided by the Chairman of the meeting at his discretion. No non-members may attend General Meetings of RIMAS except by invitation of the Council.

XVI. QUORUM AND VALIDITY OF GENERAL MEETINGS

- (a) Except as provided under Article XVI (b), the quorum at a General Meeting shall be 25% of the total Voting Membership, or 50 persons, whichever is the smaller number, present at the time the Chair is taken, which shall be within half an hour of the time fixed for the meeting.
- (b) In the event of there being no quorum, the meeting shall: -
 - (i) in the case of an Annual General Meeting or an Extraordinary General Meeting called by the Council, stand adjourned for half an hour and should the number then present be insufficient to form a quorum those present shall constitute a quorum.

The Agenda for the adjourned meeting shall be the same as that for the original meeting. Such an adjourned meeting shall have no powers to amend or make any additions to the Constitution.

- (ii) In the case of an Extraordinary General Meeting requisitioned or convened by members under Article XIV (c) or (d), be considered dissolved.
- (c) Objections if any to the validity of a General Meeting shall be raised and adjudicated when the Chairman calls upon the Secretary to read the notice convening the meeting. Once the meeting has commenced, no objection may be raised during the progress of the meeting. No meeting shall become incompetent to transact business from the want of a quorum arising after the Chair has been taken and the notice convening the meeting has been raised.

XVII. VOTING PROCEDURE AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- (a) Voting for election to the Governing Council and for purposes of amendments to the Constitution and all other matters shall normally be by a show of hands. No postal balloting shall be permitted.
- (b) Decisions, except where specifically provided for otherwise, shall be by simple majority vote of those present and voting.

XVIII. FINANCIAL CONTROL

The Governing Council shall exercise control over the funds, receipts and expenditures of RIMAS in accordance with the Financial Regulations, which it may draw up and are approved by a General Meeting.

XIX. AUDIT

Two Honorary Auditors appointed by an Annual General Meeting under Article XIII (a)(iii) shall be required to audit each year's accounts and present a report upon them to the following Annual General Meeting. They may be required by the President to audit the accounts for any period within their tenure of office at any date and make report to the Council. The financial year shall be from 1st January to 31st December.

XX. TRUSTEES

- (a) If RIMAS should at any time acquire any immovable property, such property shall be vested in Trustees subject to a declaration of trust. They shall be appointed by a General Meeting. Such Trustees so appointed shall have the power to mortgage such property so acquired if decided at a General Meeting.
- (b) Any trustee may at any time resign his trusteeship. If a trustee dies, or becomes a lunatic or of unsound mind, or moves permanently or is absent from Singapore for a period of one year, he shall be deemed to have resigned his trusteeship.
- (c) If a trustee is guilty of misconduct of such a kind as to render it undesirable that he continues as a trustee, a General Meeting may remove him from his trusteeship. Vacancies in the trusteeship may be filled at a General Meeting.
- (d) Notice of any proposal to appoint trustees, fill vacancies or to remove a trustee from his trusteeship shall be given to all members in writing at least fourteen days before the meeting at which the proposal is to be discussed.
- (e) The addresses of the immovable properties, names of trustees and any subsequent changes must be notified to the Registrar of Societies.

XXI. INTERPRETATION

- (a) In this Constitution, unless the context otherwise requires, the singular shall include the plural and masculine gender shall include the feminine, and vice-versa.
- (b) Notice to the Secretary shall be deemed to be served in writing by addressing such notice to the Offices or the Postal Address of RIMAS duly notified to all members by the Secretary. Notices in writing to any member shall be deemed to be served by addressing such notices to the last postal address notified in writing by the member to the Secretary.
- (c) In the event of any matter or question arising out of any point not specifically provided for in this Constitution, the Council shall have the power to use its discretion and interpretation. The decision of the Council shall be final unless it is reversed at a General Meeting of members.

XXII. AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION

- (a) Amendments this Constitution shall only be made by an Annual General Meeting or an Extraordinary General Meeting convened for the purpose. Any proposal to amend the Constitution, including deletions or additions of articles, shall be notified to the Secretary in writing, together with the names of the proposer and seconder, not less than twenty-one days before an Annual General Meeting, or at the time a signed requisition is made for the convening of an Extraordinary General Meeting.
- (b) The Secretary shall notify all voting members in writing of all proposals to amend the Constitution not less than fourteen days before the meeting at which such proposals are to be discussed.
- (c) Any such proposed amendment, deletion or addition shall require a two-thirds majority of those present and voting to be carried, and shall not come into force without the prior approval of the Registrar of Societies.

XXIII. PROHIBITIONS

- (a) Gambling of any kind and the playing of paikow or majong, whether for stakes or not, is forbidden on RIMAS's premises. The introduction of materials for gambling or drug taking and of bad characters into the premises is prohibited.
- (b) The funds of RIMAS shall not be used to pay the fines of members who have been convicted in Court.
- (c) RIMAS shall not engage in any Trade Union activity as defined in any written law relating to trade unions for the time being in force in Singapore, save for the Trade Union agreeing to RIMAS making the final decision on the activities engaged on.
- (d) RIMAS shall not attempt to restrict or interfere with trade or make directly or indirectly any recommendation to, any arrangement with its members which has the purpose or is likely to have the effect of fixing or controlling the price or any discount, allowance or rebate relating to any goods or services to be supplied by them.

- (e) RIMAS shall not hold any lottery, whether confined to its members or not, in the name of RIMAS or its office-bearers, Governing Council or members.
- (f) RIMAS shall not indulge in any political activity or allow its funds and/or premises to be used for political purposes.
- (g) RIMAS shall not raise funds from the public for whatever purposes without the prior approval in writing of the Registrar of Societies and other relevant authorities.

XXIV. DISSOLUTION

- (a) RIMAS shall not be dissolved, except with the consent of not less than four-fifths of its total voting membership expressed either in person or by proxy at a General Meeting convened for the purpose.
- (b) Notice of any proposal to dissolve RIMAS shall be given to all members not less than twenty-one days before the date fixed for the meeting.
- (c) In the event of dissolution as provided above, RIMAS's assets, if any, after full settlement of its debts and liabilities, shall be distributed to the Government or an institution of a public character approved under Section 37 (2) (c) of the Income Tax Act.
- (d) The Registrar of Societies shall be informed within seven days of such dissolution.
